Tree of Life

Until we chose disobedience and to listen to the "baffler" in the tree, God would walk and talk with us every day (Genesis 3:8) Adam and Eve had a great life where food was plentiful and all we had to do was trim the hedges and prune the fruit trees a little. Unfortunately the natural man is never satisfied, "he that loveth silver will not be satisfied with silver, nor he that loveth abundance with increase" (Ecc 5:10). "The heart is deceitful above all things and desperately wicked..."(Jer 17:9). Not thankful to God, and even worse, rebellious, we couldn't even keep one commandment. And God knew we were going to have to learn the hard way, that sin has a price to pay in more than one way.

Yet God had a plan to bring us back to Him and He'd also give to us in the future a "new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness." (2 Peter 3:13). First we are learning the cost of selfishness and disobedience.
Sacrificing animals when we had sinned didn't work to soften our hearts. He had to send his Son to conquer death and pay the price to bring us back to Him. Only seeing the Truth suffer the worst type of death could God penetrate the hardened heart of man.
